La Cense Montana is hosting the Fundamentals of Horsemanship Festival at their ranch in Dillon where visitors will have the opportunity to learn the AQHA's Fundamentals of Horsemanship methods up close and personal at this one of a kind event. In addition to learning these techniques, there will be opportunities for many exciting activities.

May 29th is Youth Fun and Education Day. The AQHA will host Judging Halter Classes and Junior Master Horseman Activities. La Cense will give a Horse Demonstration that showcases the Fundamentals of Horsemanship that was developed using the La Cense Method. UMW students will show what they have learned while working towards their degrees in Natural Horsemanship.

May 30th will include numerous activities such as demos by La Cense Montana and UMW students, lectures on the Fundamentals concept and education sessions, equine nutrition, as well as a draft horse team demonstration and a fajita buffet with live music.

La Cense will have eleven 12X12 stall that are available for rent at $50/stall. They will be assigned on a first come first served basis, with extra spaces outside of the stalls that will be available if needed. There will be several award buckles given out, including best open demonstration and best horsemanship. We hope to see you there!
